Exclusively for your special simchah.

Chuppah

Westminster Synagogue, an independent progressive Synagogue, is situated on the first floor of Kent House Knightsbridge. If you are planning a chuppah, and you do not belong to a Synagogue, you can be married under the auspices of the Synagogue. Rabbi Thomas Salamon would be delighted to meet with you to provide you with all the information you need to make a decision. Alternatively you may prefer to have your own Rabbi to officiate at the Chuppah.

Marriage Blessings

If one of the partners is not Jewish, a marriage blessing ceremony is a wonderful opportunity for families to have their wedding solemnized, after a civil ceremony has taken place. Once again, this can be done under the auspices of Westminster Synagogue or a progressive Rabbi of your choice may officiate.

Renewing your Vows

Celebrating 25, 50, 60 or more years of a wonderful marriage? Bring all your friends and family together to renew and celebrate your vows under our beautiful Chuppah here at Kent House Knightsbridge.

Civil Ceremony

If you are planning a civil wedding, the ground floor of Kent House Knightsbridge is licensed by Westminster City Council as a wedding venue. Once you've chosen a date for your wedding at Kent House Knightsbridge, you simply need to call the Westminster Register Office for advice and book the date with them.

Kent House Knightsbridge is the perfect venue for bar/bat mitzvah celebrations, enabling you to tailor the space to celebrate it in a way that reflects your family. Testimonials

From the fantastic organisation and professionalism of the service and staff to the delicious food, you exceeded all our expectations. We were very impressed with the venue and you made it even more special as nothing was too much to ask for and your attention to detail ensured everything ran smoothly. We have received so many compliments on the venue, the food, the helpful staff and the decoration. Thank you for making our wedding day an occasion to remember. The only problem now is that we both want to do it all over again – we're looking forward to the next big occasion that will give us a suitable excuse to use Kent House Knightsbridge again!

We just wanted to say how much we appreciated your hard work – both before and on the day itself. The day went incredibly smoothly and we were both able to enjoy the party, confident that your meticulous preparation meant everything was under control. Thank you for your amazing professionalism and charming approach throughout the process. With you at the helm, working in such harmony with the caterers and florist we were able to relax and enjoy the party from beginning to end.
