SUMMER at
KENT HOUSE
KNIGHTSBRIDGE

What could be more quintessentially English than a summer party at a historic townhouse with Royal heritage, located in Knightsbridge?

Positioned on the edge of Hyde Park, Kent House Knightsbridge is a stylish townhouse where Queen Victoria's father, Prince Edward, installed his mistress for secret rendezvous. Now available for exclusive hire the venue features two terrace spaces and a range of flexible internal spaces with floor to ceiling windows and a beautiful sweeping staircase and atrium allowing the summer light to flood in.

Whether it's a stylish corporate soiree or a laidback BBQ, our two new terraces are the perfect spaces for corporate and private functions including drinks receptions and networking events. Light, ornate and elegant our private townhouse brings a glamorous and prestigious backdrop to your summer events.

With a capacity of up to 300 across indoor and outdoor areas this sophisticated venue has plenty of space to accommodate all your guests.

Packages include:

- Exclusive hire of our townhouse
- 2 floors of event spaces
- 2 outdoor terraces
- Prosecco/Pimms reception
- Beer, wine & soft drinks (4 hour package)
- 2 course BBQ
- Uplighting & lanterns throughout venue
- PA & Radio mics for background music & speeches
